Quartz Shield®

Quartz Shield is an exciting and versatile coating system developed by All Purpose Coatings. It offers a wide range of benefits and desirable characteristics, making it suitable for various applications.

The Quartz Shield system provides customers with options for different levels of slip resistance, depending on the grit used. What sets this system apart is the use of Quartz as the slip-resistant additive instead of traditional Silica Sand. The durability and hardness of Quartz Shield ensures long-lasting performance and visual appeal. The system is based on EPO100T® Tinted Epoxy, an APAS approved, Australian-manufactured product with 20 years of proven experience and excellence.
